 THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

---

Diocese of Leeds

Welcome to Ripon Cathedral

Welcome to Ripon Cathedral for this act of worship. Christian worship has taken place on this site since Wilfrid built the first church here in 672AD. The crypt of that original church still survives and is the oldest part of any English cathedral and regular prayer has taken place there for over 1350 years.

Built on the firm foundation of that heritage, the Cathedral today continues to proclaim the Christian faith, with daily prayer and active service in Jesus' name.

If you would like to find out more about how the cathedral community is seeking to grow God's Kingdom in this 21st century, please visit our website. Regular updates of all that we are involved in and our worship are posted on our Facebook page and we tweet regularly using "@riponcathedral".

Sitting, kneeling, standing

As human beings, we worship with our bodies as well as through our music and prayers. This order of service invites you to sit or stand as appropriate. Please see these as merely invitations and adopt the posture you find most comfortable.

Large print versions of the Order of Service are available. Please ask those who welcomed you if you would like one.

Welcome to this service

From earliest times Christians have gathered through the night of Easter to recall the story of God's saving work, from creation through to the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. However, the Easter Liturgy is not merely a presentation of God's work. It is also a real experience of new life for the worshipper; a passing from darkness to light which offers hope to all the faithful. It is important that the preparation be prayerful and thorough.

The Easter Vigil marks the end of the emptiness of Holy Saturday and leads into the celebration of Christ's resurrection. The singing of the Exsultet, the ancient hymn of triumph and rejoicing, links this night of our Christian redemption to the Passover night of Israel's redemption out of Egypt. Christian baptism is a participation in the death and resurrection of Christ, a dying to sin in order to be reborn in him, and the Easter Vigil was from early Christian times a preferred occasion for baptism. It is fittingly a time when those who are already Christians may repeat with renewed commitment the promises of their own baptism, and strengthen their sense of incorporation into the royal and priestly ministry of the whole people of God. The Easter Gospel is proclaimed with all the joy and splendour that the church can find.

The Easter Eucharist follows immediately on the Vigil. All the resources of the church - music, flowers, bells, colours, incense, water - are used to celebrate Christ's resurrection. The 'Alleluia', silent throughout Lent, returns.

The President is The Dean, the Very Revd, John Dobson DL.

The Preacher is The Very Revd Jane Hedges, former Dean of Norwich.

The service is sung by the Full Choral Foundation and the Mass setting is the Little Organ Mass by Franz Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) with the Gloria taken from the Missa brevis by Jonathan Dove. (b. 1959).

Words of welcome are given by The Dean.

The service begins around the Easter fire on the cathedral forecourt. The congregation is invited to join the clergy around the fire, or to remain in their places turning to face the west door.

The Service of Light

The Marking of the Easter Candle

President Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
on this most holy night,
when our Lord Jesus Christ passed from death to life,
the Church invites her children throughout the world to come together in vigil and prayer.
This is the Passover of the Lord.
We remember his death and resurrection
by hearing his word and celebrating his mysteries, confident that we shall share his victory over death and live with him for ever in God.

President Eternal God,
who made this most holy night
to shine with the brightness of your one true light, set us aflame with the fire of your love,
and bring us to the radiance of your heavenly glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

After the blessing of the new fire the president marks the Easter candle by tracing the cross, then the Greek letters Alpha and Omega above and below the cross respectively, and the numerals 2024 between the arms of the cross.

President Christ yesterday and today,
the beginning and the end,
Alpha and Omega,
all time belongs to him, and all ages;
to him be glory and power,
through every age and for ever.

All Amen.

Five incense grains are placed in the candle to represent the wounds of Christ.

President By his holy and glorious wounds may Christ our Lord guard and keep us.

All Amen.

The Lighting of the Easter Candle

The Easter Candle is lit.

President            May the light of Christ, rising in glory, banish all darkness from our hearts and minds.

The deacon bearing the candle enters the Cathedral, followed by the other ministers, pausing just inside the entrance. The deacon bearing the candle raises it and the following is sung.

                                 The Light of Christ.
All                        Thanks be to God.

The procession moves further into the cathedral and pauses a second time. The candle is raised again. The following is sung on a higher note:

                                 The Light of Christ.
All                        Thanks be to God.

The procession continues and pauses once more in front of the nave altar. The candle is raised again. The following is sung on an even higher note:

                                 The Light of Christ.
All                        Thanks be to God.

The Easter candle is placed in the stand and is censed - a pillar of fire in a pillar of cloud. The light is now passed to the people by the acolytes and clergy. Please help spread the light quickly by lighting your neighbour's candle. Please remain standing.

The Exsultet

This is sung to the 4th century plainsong, written for this night by St Ambrose.

Cantor            Rejoice, heavenly powers! Sing, choirs of angels!
                                 O Universe, dance around God's throne!
                                 Jesus Christ, our King, is risen!
                                 Sound the victorious trumpet of salvation!

                                 Rejoice, O earth, in glory, revealing the splendour of your creation
                                 Radiant in the brightness of your triumphant King!
                                 Christ has conquered!
                                 Now his life and glory fill you! Darkness vanishes for ever!

Rejoice, O Mother Church! Exult in glory!
The risen Saviour, our Lord of life, shines upon you!
Let all God's people sing and shout for joy.

President           The Lord be with you
All                   and also with you.

President           Lift up your hearts.
All                   We lift them to the Lord.

President           Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All                   It is right to give thanks and praise.

President           It is right and good that with hearts and minds and voices
we should praise you, Father almighty, the unseen God, through your only Son, Jesus Christ our Lord,
who has saved us by his death,
paid the price of Adam's sin,
and reconciled us once again to you.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President           For this is the Passover feast, when Christ, the true Lamb of God, is slain whose blood consecrates the homes of all the faithful.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President           This is the night when you first saved our ancestors, freeing Israel from her slavery and leading her safely through the sea.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President           This is the night when Jesus Christ vanquished hell, broke the chains of death and rose triumphant from the grave.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President           This is the night when all who believe in him are freed from sin, restored to grace and holiness,
and share the victory of Christ.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President           This is the night that gave us back what we had lost;
beyond our deepest dreams
you made even our sin a happy fault.
All                   Glory to you for ever.

President Most blessed of all nights!
 Evil and hatred are put to flight and sin is washed away, lost innocence regained, and mourning turned to joy.

All Glory to you for ever.

President Night truly blessed when hatred is cast out, peace and justice find a home, and heaven is joined to earth and all creation reconciled to you.

All Glory to you for ever.

President Therefore, heavenly Father, in this our Easter joy accept our sacrifice of praise, your Church's solemn offering.
 Grant that this Easter Candle may make our darkness light.

For Christ the morning star has risen in glory;
 Christ is risen from the dead and his flame of love still burns within us!
 Christ sheds his peaceful light on the world!
 Christ lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All Amen.

The Vigil

Introduction

President As we await the risen Christ, let us hear the record of God's saving deeds in history, recalling how he saved his people in ages past and in the fullness of time sent his Son to be our Redeemer; and let us pray that, through this Easter celebration, God may bring to perfection in each of us the saving work he has begun.

Please sit.

Old Testament Readings

A reading from the Book of Exodus.

As Pharaoh drew near, the Israelites looked back, and there were the Egyptians advancing on them. In great fear the Israelites cried out to the Lord. But Moses said to the people, 'Do not be afraid, stand firm, and see the deliverance that the Lord will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you see today you shall never see again.' Then the Lord said to Moses,
 'Why do you cry out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. But you lift up your staff, and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, that the Israelites may go into the sea on dry ground.’ Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea. The Lord drove the sea back by a strong east wind all night, and turned the sea into dry land; and the waters were divided. The Israelites went into the sea on dry ground, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. At the morning watch the Lord in the pillar of fire and cloud looked down upon the Egyptian army, and threw the Egyptian army into panic. The waters returned and covered the chariots and the chariot drivers, the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed them into the sea; not one of them remained. But the Israelites walked on dry ground through the sea, the waters forming a wall for them on their right and on their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel that day from the Egyptians; so the people feared the Lord and believed in the Lord and in his servant Moses. Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord.

Exodus 14.10-15.1

Canticle

Choir

I will sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously.

I will sing unto the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation: this is my God and I will praise him; my father's God and I will exalt him. The Lord is a man of war: The Lord is his name. Pharaoh's chariots and his host he has cast into the sea: and his chosen officers are sunk in the Red Sea. The floods cover them: they went down into the depths like a stone. Thy right hand O Lord is glorious in power: thy right hand, O Lord, shatters the enemy. Thou wilt bring in thy people and plant them on thine own mountain: the place O Lord which thou hast made for thine abode; the sanctuary O Lord which thy hands have established. The Lord will reign: for ever and ever.

I will sing to the Lord, for he has triumphed gloriously.

The Song of the Israelites, Exodus 15

President
All

Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us
therefore let us keep the feast.

President Lord God our redeemer, who heard the cry of your people and sent your servant Moses to lead them out of slavery, free us from the tyranny of sin and death and, by the leading of your Spirit, bring us to our promised land; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord.

All Amen.

The Second Reading

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel.

The word of the Lord came to me: I will take you from the nations, and gather you from all the countries, and bring you into your own land. I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean from all your uncleannesses, and from all your idols I will cleanse you. A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will remove from your body the heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you, and make you follow my statutes and be careful to observe my ordinances. Then you shall live in the land that I gave to your ancestors; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Ezekiel 36.24-28

Psalm

Like as the hart desireth the water-brooks :
so longeth my soul after thee, O God.

My soul is athirst for God, yea, even for the living God :
when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

Now when I think thereupon, I pour out my heart by myself :
for I went with the multitude,
and brought them forth into the house of God;

In the voice of praise and thanksgiving :
among such as keep holy-day.

O send out thy light and thy truth that they may lead me :
and bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.

And that I may go unto the altar of God
even unto the God of my joy and gladness :
and upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God my God.

Psalm 42 & 43

President

President

Heavenly Father; by the power of your Holy Spirit you give to your faithful people new life in the water of baptism.
Guide and strengthen us by the same Spirit, that we who are born again may serve you in faith and love, and grow into the full stature of your Son, Jesus Christ,
who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

Amen.

The Third Reading

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah.

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory; he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival.

Zephaniah 3: 14-18

Psalm

When Israel came out of Egypt:
and the house of Jacob from among the strange people,
Judah was his sanctuary: and Israel his dominion.

The sea saw that, and fled: Jordan was driven back.

The mountains skipped like rams:
and the little hills like young sheep.

What aileth thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest:
and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?

Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams:
and ye little hills, like young sheep?

Tremble, thou earth at the presence of the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob;
who turned the hard rock into a standing water:
and the flint-stone into a springing well.

Psalm 114

President
All

Christ is the resurrection and the Life
Those who believe in Christ will never die.

God, the giver of life,
whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church,
By the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

The Collect

President            Let us pray that we may reign with the risen Christ:
                         Lord of all life and power, who through the mighty resurrection of your Son overcame the old order of sin and death to make all things new in him.
                         Grant that we,
                         being dead to sin and alive to you in Jesus Christ,
                         may reign with him in glory;
                         to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be praise and honour, glory and might,
                         now and in all eternity.

All                    Amen.

Please sit.

New Testament Reading

A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Romans.

Do you not know that all of us who have been baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? Therefore we have been buried with him by baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his. We know that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. For whoever has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6.3-11

Reader              This is the word of the Lord.
All                    Thanks be to God.

The Easter Gospel

and the living one;
I was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore.

All Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Deacon Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

All Glory to you, O Lord.

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

President Let us give thanks to the Lord our God
All It is right to give thanks and praise.

President It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, always and everywhere to give you thanks, almighty and eternal Father,
and on this night of our redemption to celebrate with joyful hearts
the memory of your wonderful works.
For by the mystery of his passion
Jesus Christ, your risen Son, has conquered the powers of death and hell and restored in men and women the image of your glory.
He has placed them once more in paradise and opened to them the gate of life eternal.
And so, in the joy of this Passover, earth and heaven resound with gladness, while angels and archangels and the powers of all creation sing for ever the hymn of your glory.

*Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
Hosanna in excelsis.
Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini.
Hosanna in excelsis.*

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

President

We praise and bless you, loving Father;
through Jesus Christ, our Lord;
and as we obey his command,
send your Holy Spirit, that broken bread and wine outpoured may be for us the body and blood of your dear Son.

On the night before he died he had supper with his friends, taking bread, he praised you.
He broke the bread, gave it to them and said:
Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you;
do this in remembrance of me.

When supper was ended he took the cup of wine.
Again he praised you, gave it to them and said:
Drink this, all of you;
this is my blood of the new covenant,
which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.

So, Father, we remember all that Jesus did,
in him we plead with confidence his sacrifice made once for all upon the cross.
Bringing before you the bread of life and cup of salvation, we proclaim his death and resurrection until he comes in glory.

Jesus Christ is Lord:

Lord, by your cross and resurrection you have set us free. You are the Saviour of the world.

Lord of all life,
help us to work together for that day when your kingdom comes and justice and mercy will be seen in all the earth.
Look with favour on your people, gather us in your loving arms,
and bring us with the Blessed Virgin Mary,
St Peter, St Wilfrid and all the saints, to feast at your table in heaven.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all honour and glory are yours, O loving Father,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Please sit.

The Lord's Prayer

President Rejoicing in God's new creation,
Let us pray with confidence as our Saviour has taught us.

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

President We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All Though we are many,
we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

Giving of Communion

President Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All Alleluia! Let us keep the feast.

We welcome communicants of all denominations to receive holy communion. If you are not a communicant and would like to receive God's blessing, please come with this service sheet in your hand. Please move as directed. If you require a gluten-free wafer, please indicate this to the minister.

During communion the choir sings the Agnus Dei and a Motet.

Agnus Dei

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

*Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem*

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Motet

Hail, gladdening Light, of his pure glory poured who is the immortal Father, heavenly, blest, holiest of holies, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Now we are come to the sun's hour of rest,
the lights of evening round us shine,
we hymn the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit divine.

Worthiest art thou at all times to be sung with undefiled tongue,
Son of our God, giver of life, alone:
therefore in all the world thy glories, Lord, they own.

*Words Phos hilaron 3rd century or earlier tr. John Keble (1792–1866)
Music Charles Wood (1866–1926)*

Prayer after Communion

President Let us pray.

God of Life,
who for our redemption gave your only-begotten Son
to the death of the cross, and by his glorious resurrection have delivered us from the power of our enemy.
Grant us so to die daily to sin,
that we may evermore live with him in the joy of his risen life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

During the hymn the president and clergy move to the Easter Garden.

Recessional Hymn

Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won;
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
Kept the folded grave-clothes where thy body lay.
Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the vict'ry thou o'er death hast won.

Lo, Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
Lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom;
Let the Church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
For her Lord now liveth, death hath lost its sting:
Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the vict'ry thou o'er death hast won.

The Blessing of the Easter Garden

Please turn to face the Easter Garden.

President      Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation;
the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ to you be glory now and for ever.
In your great mercy you have given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.
By your blessing may we who have prepared this Garden in celebration of his victory be strengthened in faith, know the power of his presence,
and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory.

All      Blessed be God for ever. Alleluia!

The Dismissal

The Blessing

President      The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus,
that great shepherd of the sheep,
through the blood of the eternal covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will,
working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight;
and the blessing of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit be among you and remain with you always.

All

Amen.

No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of Life;
Life is nought without thee: aid us in our strife,
Make us more than conquerors through thy deathless love;
Bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above:
Thine be the glory, risen, conquering Son,
Endless is the vict'ry thou o'er death hast won.
